

Job 13

Englische King James Version von 1611/1769 mit Strongs

1 Lo, mine eye^{H5869} hath seen^{H7200} all this, mine ear^{H241} hath heard^{H8085} and understood^{H995} it. 2 What ye know^{H1847}, the same do I know^{H3045} also: I am not inferior^{H5307} unto you. 3 Surely^{H199} I would speak^{H1696} to the Almighty^{H7706}, and I desire^{H2654} to reason^{H3198} with God^{H410}. 4 But^{H199} ye are forgers^{H2950} of lies^{H8267}, ye are all physicians^{H7495} of no value^{H457}. 5 O that^{H5414} ye would altogether^{H2790} hold your peace^{H2790}! and it should be your wisdom^{H2451}. 6 Hear^{H8085} now my reasoning^{H8433}, and hearken^{H7181} to the pleadings^{H7379} of my lips^{H8193}. 7 Will ye speak^{H1696} wickedly^{H5766} for God^{H410}? and talk^{H1696} deceitfully^{H7423} for him? 8 Will ye accept^{H5375} his person^{H6440}? will ye contend^{H7378} for God^{H410}? 9 Is it good^{H2895} that he should search you out^{H2713}? or as one man^{H582} mocketh^{H2048} another, do ye so mock^{H2048} him? 10 He will surely^{H3198} reprove^{H3198} you, if ye do secretly^{H5643} accept^{H5375} persons^{H6440}. 11 Shall not his excellency^{H7613} make you afraid^{H1204}? and his dread^{H6343} fall^{H5307} upon you? 12 Your remembrances^{H2146} are like^{H4912} unto ashes^{H665}, your bodies^{H1354} to bodies^{H1354} of clay^{H2563}.

13 Hold your peace^{H2790}, let me alone, that I may speak^{H1696}, and let come^{H5674} on me what will.¹ 14 Wherefore do I take^{H5375} my flesh^{H1320} in my teeth^{H8127}, and put^{H7760} my life^{H5315} in mine hand^{H3709}? 15 Though^{H2005} he slay^{H6991} me, yet will I trust^{H3176} in him: but I will maintain^{H3198} mine own ways^{H1870} before^{H6440} him.² 16 He also shall be my salvation^{H3444}: for an hypocrite^{H2611} shall not come^{H935} before^{H6440} him. 17 Hear^{H8085} diligently^{H8085} my speech^{H4405}, and my declaration^{H262} with your ears^{H241}. 18 Behold now, I have ordered^{H6186} my cause^{H4941}; I know^{H3045} that I shall be justified^{H6663}. 19 Who is he that will plead^{H7378} with me? for now, if I hold my tongue^{H2790}, I shall give up the ghost^{H1478}. 20 Only do^{H6213} not two^{H8147} things unto me: then will I not hide^{H5641} myself from thee^{H6440}. 21 Withdraw^{H7368} thine hand^{H3709} far^{H7368} from me: and let not thy dread^{H367} make me afraid^{H1204}. 22 Then call^{H7121} thou, and I will answer^{H6030}: or let me speak^{H1696}, and answer^{H7725} thou me.

23 How many are mine iniquities^{H5771} and sins^{H2403}? make me to know^{H3045} my transgression^{H6588} and my sin^{H2403}. 24 Wherefore hidest^{H5641} thou thy face^{H6440}, and holdest^{H2803} me for thine enemy^{H341}? 25 Wilt thou break^{H6206} a leaf^{H5929} driven to and fro^{H5086}? and wilt thou pursue^{H7291} the dry^{H3002} stubble^{H7179}? 26 For thou writest^{H3789} bitter things^{H4846} against me, and makest me to possess^{H3423} the iniquities^{H5771} of my youth^{H5271}. 27 Thou puttest^{H7760} my feet^{H7272} also in the stocks^{H5465}, and lookest narrowly^{H8104} unto all my paths^{H734}; thou settest a print^{H2707} upon the heels^{H8328} of my feet^{H7272}.³⁴ 28 And he, as a rotten thing^{H7538}, consumeth^{H1086}, as a garment^{H899} that is moth^{H6211} eaten^{H398}.
